

Oak planted thanks to grant

6:00 pm EDT, Friday, September 14, 2018

Photo: Erik Trautmann / Hearst Connecticut Media

Landscape Architect at Heritage Landscapes LLC and Norwalk Tree Advisory Commissioner. Peter Viteretto, Norwalk Community College (NCC) student Dorian Gonzales, Norwalk Tree Advisory Chairman and The Care of Trees Arborist, Richard Whitehead, and NCC student, Henry Hood, plant a pin oak following a brief ceremony at Roodner Court Housing Complex Friday September 14, 2018, in Norwalk, Conn. A grant Norwalk Community College received through TD Green Streets, and a partnership with the City of Norwalk Tree Advisory Committee and Norwalk Housing Authority, made possible the special tree planting ceremony where 12 trees were planted at the Housing Complex by the group of arborists, officials and local volunteers including a dozen Norwalk Community College students.

Buy photo

NORWALK — Landscape Architect at Heritage Landscapes LLC and Norwalk Tree Advisory Commissioner Peter Viteretto, Norwalk Community College (NCC) student Dorian Gonzales, Norwalk Tree Advisory Chairman and The Care of Trees Arborist, Richard Whitehead, and NCC student, Henry Hood, planted a pin oak following a brief ceremony at Roodner Court Housing Complex on Friday.

A grant Norwalk Community College received through TD Green Streets, and a partnership with the City of Norwalk Tree Advisory Committee and Norwalk Housing Authority, made possible the special tree planting ceremony where 12 trees were planted at the Housing Complex by the group of arborists, officials and local volunteers including a dozen Norwalk Community College students.